The attention of the invalid public and all those afflicted by any of the above diseases is respectfully called to the merits of a new and invaluable preparation from an original recipe of a distinguished physician, combining in itself the most active remedial properties of two of the very first articles in the Materia Medica.

The Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, were introduced to the public about twelve months ago, and during that period their success has been so great as to induce the proprietor to offer them with still more confidence in the full belief that by entering into more extensive use they will prove a blessing to all those suffering from the diseases above enumerated

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

This anomalous, distressing and almost indescribable complaint—the torture of civilized society has its foundation in a deranged condition of the stomach and bowels. Those afflicted by it are cut off from half the enjoyments of life The pleasures of the table and sweet and regular sleep oftentimes a confirmed Dyspepsia fatally neglected, is but the forerunner of more dangerous diseases, if not of death itself At its first appearance it should be checked by an attention to diet and regularity and by the use of some safe and salutary medicine All that any one can desire of this kind is presented in Dr WOOD'S Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, a skillfully prepared and delightful tonic and Aperient, every day becoming more & more popular. The following is one among many certificate of the efficacy of this medicine in the cure of Dyspepsia and Indigestion Headache, &c

Col Gibbs is well known in this vicinity and cheerfully gives his testimony of the efficiency of this Medicine

Sandwich, Sept 4 1844

Dear Sir— This is to certify that my daughter has been troubled with Dyspepsia for a number of years attended with almost constant headache and other distressing symptoms which accompany this disease She visited Boston to avail herself of the advice of the justly celebrated physicians of that city all to no purpose By the solicitation of a friend I was induced to purchase a bottle of Dr Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters Before taking one bottle she was relieved entirely of the headache and after taking two or three bottles the other symptoms entirely disappeared

DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS

At certain seasons of the year and particularly in the spring, many persons are subject to a depression of the spirits accompanied by a debilitated stomach loss of appetite nervous irritation general languor, and a variety of symptoms which it is impossible to describe The only way to remove this disease is to strengthen the stomach by the use of proper tonic remedies to brace up the muscles secure an appetite for food and allay nervous irritation [illegible] the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters [illegible] recommended as the best SPRING MEDICINE ever offered to the public One trial of their virtues will be sufficient to [illegible] all those who have used them [illegible] to health and happiness [illegible]

NOTICE TO PROPRIETORS OF CERTAIN LANDS IN THE STATE OF MAINE.

THE Legislature of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by a Resolve passed 1st April 1836, directed the Land Agent of said Commonwealth to give notice to sundry proprietors of lands in the State of Maine, who were required by a condition contained in the original deeds of conveyance from the Commonwealth to place a certain number of families on their respective tracts and requiring them to furnish evidence of the fulfillment of said condition, or pay the sum of $30 for each family deficient on the first day of June 1836, or the land should be declared forfeited

Pursuant to said Resolve notice was soon after given to all the proprietors of lands subject to said condition, most of whom have complied therewith and removed the incumbrance The proprietors however, of the following townships, or tracts have not responded to the notice neither have they (so far as is known in this office) settled for or complied with said condition viz In the County of Cumberland—a gore of land lying between the towns of Raymond and Otisfield formerly conveyed to Samuel Phillips

County of Franklin—Township Letter D conveyed to Jonathan Gardner, and number two and number three in the third range.

County of Oxford—Letter A No 1, now the town of Riley, and A No 3 now the town of Newry

County of Somerset—A half township No 2 1st Range north of Bingham's Kennebec purchase granted to the Trustees of Sandwich Academy

County of Penobscot—Township No 3 on the west side of Penobscot River granted to the Maine Literary and Theological Institution, now the town of Argyle; South half of township No 3, 8th range North of the Waldo patent granted to C Drown and others, and the north half of township No 6 9th range granted to the Trustees of Warren Academy

The undersigned is required by a late resolve of the Legislature of Massachusetts passed the 11th day of March last again to give notice to delinquent proprietors to take such measures as he may deem to be necessary to recover to the Commonwealth the possession of any of the above named towns or tracts of land from such proprietors as shall have failed on the first day of December next of complying with the requisition of the Resolve of the first day of April 1836.

INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION.

THE above figure is given to represent the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION It is the great EVACUATION for the impurities of the body It will be noticed that a thick cloudy mist issues from all points of the surface which indicates the wonderful process going forward within. This perspiration flows uninterruptedly when we are in health, but ceases when we are sick It should be the care of every one to see that it is not checked Life cannot be sustained without it It is thrown off from the blood and other juices of the body, and disposes by this means of nearly all the impurities within us The blood by this means only works itself pure The language of Scripture, is "in the BLOOD is life." If it ever becomes impure, it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION It never requires any internal medicines to cleanse it, as it ALWAYS purifies itself by its own heat and action and throws off all its offending humor through the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION. Thus we see, all that is necessary when the blood is stagnant, or infected, is to open the pores and it relieves itself from all impurity instantly Its own heat and vitality are sufficient without one particle of medicine except to open the pores upon the surface Thus we see the folly of taking so much internal remedies All practitioners, however, direct their efforts to restore the Insensible Perspiration but it seems to be not always the proper one — The Thomsonian for instance steams, the Hydropathist shrouds us in wet blankets, the Homeopathist deals out infinitissimals, the Allopathist bleeds and doses us with mercury and the blustering Quack gorges us with pills, pills, pills

But one object only is in view, viz—to RESTORE the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION. If this can be done they say, we will take care of the rest It will be seen, therefore, that all physicians understand alike what is necessary to a recovery, however much they may differ as to the mode of obtaining it

To give some idea of the amount, and consequently the importance of the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION, we will state that the learned Dr Lewenhoek, and the great Boerhaave, ascertained that five-eighths of all we receive into the stomach, passed off by this means In other words, if we eat and drink eight pounds per day we evacuate five pounds of it by the Insensible Perspiration

This is none other than the used up particles of the blood and other juices, giving place to the new and fresh ones by carrying with it all the impurities within, up to the surface. To check this therefore, is to retain in the system five-eighths of all the virulent matter that nature demands should leave the body And even when this is the case, the blood is so active a principle, that it determines those particles to the skin, where they form scabs, pimples ulcers and other spots, but if it is directed inwards, and falls upon the lungs, the consequences are generally fatal

By a sudden transition from heat to cold, the pores are stopped, the perspiration ceases, and disease begins at once to develope itself Hence a stoppage of this flow of the juices, originates so many complaints It is through the surface that we imbibe nearly all our ills

It is by stopping the pores that overwhelms mankind with coughs, colds and consumptions Nine tenths of the world die from diseases induced by a stoppage of the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION!

It is easily seen, therefore, how NECESSARY is the flow of this subtle humor to the surface, to preserve health It cannot be stopped, it cannot be even checked, without inducing disease The blood and intestines must relieve themselves of all their worn out particles, and poisonous humors, and they must go through the pores as nature designed

Let me ask now, every candid mind, what course seems the most reasonable to pursue, to unstop the pores after they are closed, and let the perspiration flow, that the blood may relieve itself of its impurities? Would you give physic to UNSTOP the pores? Or would you apply something that would do this upon the surface, where the clogging actually is? Would not this be common sense. And yet I know of no physician who makes any external application to effect it. The reason I assign is, that no medicine within their knowledge, is capable of doing it. Under these circumstances I present to physicians, and to all others, a preparation that has this power in its fullest extent It is McAlister's All-Healing Ointment or the World's Salve It has POWER to restore perspiration on the feet, on the head, around old sores upon the chest, in short upon any part of the body whether diseased slightly or severely When the perspiration is restored, it has POWER to penetrate to the lungs liver or any other part of the human system, and so act upon them if they be diseased by separating the inflamed morbid particles therefrom, and expelling them to the surface.

It has POWER to cause all external sores, scrofulous humors, skin diseases, poisonous wounds, to discharge their putrid matter, and then heals them.

It is a REMEDY that sweeps off the whole catalogue of cutaneous disorders, and restores the entire cuticle to its healthy functions.

It is a REMEDY that forbids the necessity of so many and deleterious drugs taken into the stomach.

It is a REMEDY that neither sickens, gives inconvenience, or is dangerous to the intestines.

This REMEDY is probably the only one known, that is capable of producing all these great results Its great value is in restoring at once, the circulation of the juices when checked or deranged by cold or other causes It preserves and defends the surface from all derangement of functions, while it keeps open the channel for the blood to void all its impurities and dispose of all its useless particles — There is a connection, harmony, and feasibility in it all that defies contradiction. It is a simple, but wonderful principle that preserves in healthy operation the entire machinery of our being.— It indissolubly holds together the surface and internal Viscera, the internal Viscera and the surface. They are inseparably connected and cannot be disjoined. The surface is THE outlet of five-eighths of the bile and used up matter within. It is pierced with MILLIONS of openings to RELIEVE the intestines. Stop up these pores and DEATH knocks at your door. It is rightly termed All-Healing, for there is scarcely a disease, external or internal, that it will not benefit. It will be found the most useful as well as the cheapest family medicine in the world. I have used it for the last fourteen years with success without a parallel. I have used it for all diseases of the chest, consumption, liver, and the most dangerous of internal maladies I have used it in cases of extreme peril and hazard, involving the utmost danger and responsibility and I declare before heaven and man, that not in one single case has it failed to benefit when the patient was within the reach of mortal means

I never, in my recollection, had more than five or six among the thousands who have used it, say that it was not favorable to their complaint. On the contrary I have had hundreds voluntarily, and in the warmest and most pathetic language speak in its praise I have had physicians learned in the profession; I have had ministers of the gospel, Judges on the Bench, Aldermen and Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition and MULTITUDES of the POOR, use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice, one united, universal voice saying "McAlister, your Ointment is GOOD"

CONSUMPTION

Of all diseases, we find this the most important, and concerning which we meet with the most opposition It can hardly be credited that a salve can have any effect upon the lungs, seated as they are within the system But we say once for all that this Ointment will reach the lungs quicker than any medicine that can be given internally Every body consents to the fact that if a healing medicine could be applied ON the lungs, there would be great hopes of recovery The difficulty is to get the medicine there Now the Salve has the wonderful virtue of extracting the putrid diseased humors from all external sores, by causing them to discharge In like manner it operates upon internal affections by driving all the impurities through the pores to the surface Thus with Consumption if placed upon the chest it penetrates directly to the lungs separates the poisonous particles that are consuming them and expels them from the system

It is the simplest and most rational process in creation if one has the medicine capable of doing it The All-Healing Ointment possesses that power to its fullest extent I need not say that it is curing persons of consumption continually although we are told it is foolishness I care not what is said, so long as I can cure several thousand persons yearly If this medicine was in the hands of some patent medicine brawlers they would make an uproar through the country that would be insupportable

SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL

This disease is really inveterate, and hard to be subdued It is generally seated in the side of the neck behind the ears, and under the chin yet scarcely any part of the body is exempt It sometimes falls on the lungs and produces consumption It is a dreadful circumstance that this disease is transmitted from parents to children

The Salve will extract all the morbid matter by causing the sores to discharge, and then let the Solar Tincture be used to drive it to one point, which done a continuance of the Ointment will completely remove the disorder — This is probably the safest and most effectual of any method It should be adopted without a moment's hesitation

ERYSIPELAS

This complaint arises from impurities being driven out to the surface by means of the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION and lodging in the cuticle Forms sores, pimples, &c, it being of a caustic, acrid putrifying nature It only requires that it should discharge its virulent particles through the skin, and the difficulty will pass off If suffered to remain, and driven inwards it is frequently fatal

Let the Salve and Solar Tincture be used as in Scrofula, and the patient will soon get well

SALT RHEUM

This is another obstinate disease but can be cured effectually as the Scrofula There is no difficulty in this disease

HEAD ACHE EAR ACHE AND DEAFNESS

The Salve has cured persons of the Head Ache of 12 years standing and who had it regularly every week so that vomiting often took place It cured the wife of a man who laughed in my face for proposing such a cure and who now would not be without it for the best farm in the state If any man will take the trouble to call I will give his name

Deafness and Ear Ache are helped with the like success as also Ague in the face

COLD FEET

Consumption, Liver Complaint, pains in the chest or side, falling of the hair, one or the other always accompanies cold feet It is a sure sign of disease in the system to have cold feet Some persons are totally unable to get them warm and endure much suffering thereby The Salve will restore the INSENSIBLE PERSPIRATION and thus cure every case It is infallible for this

ASTHMA, TIGHTNESS OF BREATH

If this disease be not hereditary and produced by a malformation of the chest, the Salve will cure it.

DYSPEPSIA

One would suppose a Salve would not effect this disease much, but the All-Healing Ointment will cure two, sooner than internal remedy will cure one

SORE EYES

The inflammation and disease always lie back of the ball of the eye in the socket Hence the inutility of all remedies that are used upon the lids. The virtue of any medicine must reach the seat of the inflammation or it will do little good The Salve if rubbed on the temples will penetrate directly into the socket and infuse all its virtues upon the disorder The pores will be opened a proper perspiration will be created and the disease will soon pass off to the surface How easy and how natural! It is as perfect and valuable as it is simple and philosophical

SORE LIPS, CHAPPED HANDS, ETC

I sell a great deal of Salve to Seamen, who say it is the ONLY thing they can depend on to cure their hands when exposed to the weather at sea It acts like a charm in these complaints Two or three applications cure

PIMPLES ON THE FACE, FRECKLES, TAN, MASCULINE SKIN, GROSS SURFACE.

Its first action is to expel all humor. It will not cease drawing till the face is free from any matter that may be lodged under the skin and frequently breaking out to the surface It then heals When there is nothing but grossness, or dull repulsive surface, it begins to soften until the skin becomes as smooth and delicate as a child's. It throws a freshness and blushing color upon the now white, transparent skin that is perfectly enchanting Sometimes in case of Freckles it will first start out those that have been hidden and seen but seldom Pursue the Salve and all will soon disappear

The reason for this wonderful change in a lady's face is, that it excites into natural and healthy activity the Insensible Perspiration, while it renovates and renews the surface, which leaves the skin in as lively and delicate a condition as the most fastidious could desire It is put up in fine jars and beautifully scented on purpose for the toilet

BURNS.

Life can always be saved if the vitals are not injured I have so many testimonials for the cure of this complaint that I could fill a book. I suppose there is not a family in the United States, that would consent to be without this Salve a single day, if they knew its balm in healing burns alone. It extracts the pain and leaves the place without a scar

QUINSY SORE THROAT, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS.

There is not an internal remedy in existence, that will cure these disorders as quick as this Salve. It opens the pores on the neck and draws off all the inflammation and impure juices, and a few days sees the patient well. It is sovereign in these cases.

PILES.

The Salve acts upon the Piles as upon Sore Eyes — There is an inflammation, which must be drawn from the parts. The Salve does this.

HERNIA OR RUPTURE.

This Salve has cured some very bad cases of rupture, and although it might not all, yet it would be wise to try it. It is a peculiar complaint, but it may be helped some, if not cured entirely. I have not the shadow of doubt that it would cure thousands if a trial was made, who believe no medicine of the least benefit. 2s. worth would satisfy any one, whether it would do good or not.

WORMS.

If parents knew how fatal most medicines were to children, taken inwardly, they would be slow to resort to them Especially 'mercurial lozenges,' called 'medicated lozenges,' 'vermifuges,' pills, &c. Even were it possible to say positively that worms were present it is not safe The truth is, no one can tell, invariably when worms are present. Of course the remedy is not applicable to the complaint. Now let me say to parents, that this Salve will always tell if a child has worms. Let it be rubbed on the neck and chest, to keep them from going up, and then down on the bowels, and they will soon leave. It will DRIVE every vestige of them away. This is a simple and SAFE cure. No injury can come of it any way. But should it be cholic, inflammation of the bowels, or gripe of the intestines, it will effectually cure them as the worms.

There is probably no medicine on the face of the earth at once so sure and so safe in the expulsion of worms. It would be cruel, nay WICKED, to give internal doubtful medicines, so long as a harmless, certain, and effectual external one could be had.

CHOLIC, PAIN, OR INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS.

Let the Salve be rubbed in and heated with the fire or hot flat irons, and all pains and difficulty will soon cease

SWELLINGS

of the Joints, or weakness, or any affection of the bone, nothing is so good as this Salve

POISONS

I never knew any thing so good as this Salve. It causes the poison to discharge immediately, and leaves not the slightest cause of alarm. Poison by vines, bites of animals, of burns, it removes when nothing else will.

TOILET

I have it done up in fine order for the dressing case. Although I have said little about it as a hair restorative, yet I will stake it against the WORLD! They may bring their Oils far and near, and mine will restore the hair two cases to their one These are no idle words, for I am ready to back it with any reasonable amount

OLD SORES, MORTIFICATIONS, ULCERS, ETC

There is no effectual way of curing these but by drawing off the putrid matter To merely dry it up would only endanger one's health more That some Sores are an outlet to the impurities of the system, is the only reason, because they cannot pass off through the natural channels of the Insensible Perspiration If such Sores are healed up, the impurities must have some other outlet, or it will endanger life This is the reason why it is impolitic to use the common Salve of the day in such cases For they have no power to open other avenues, to let off this morbid matter, and the consequences are always fatal This Salve will always provide for such emergencies There need be no fear It is perfect

BROKEN BREAST.

Persons need never have a Broken Breast The Salve will ALWAYS prevent it, if used in season

LIVER COMPLAINT

Persons with this disease frequently have eruptions of the hands, face and other parts, and never once think that it arises from the liver Their utter inability, to remove these eruptions, proves the misapprehension of the disorder Such must use it first on the feet, then wear it on the chest, and the difficulty will soon go away.

ILLIAC PASSION OR GRIPING OF THE INTESTINES

This disease caused the death of the late accomplished Hugh S Legare, Attorney General, and acting Secretary of State of the United States. It is the stopping up of the small intestines and sometimes the twisting of them. It is brought on by a neglect of the daily evacuations or from incarcerated Hernia The pains are awful, and unless help comes speedily, the sufferer soon dies

The All-Healing Ointment would have saved the life of Mr Legare and all others under similar circumstances

All pains gripings, inflammations and disorders of the bowels will be relieved if not effectually cured

CORNS

If the Salve is used according to directions, people need never be troubled with Corns especially, cut out by some travelling Mountebank, who knows he is doing more mischief than he can possibly repair A little of this Ointment put on now and then will always keep them down

It is said there are few complaints that it will not benefit. It is a FAMILY Salve of untold value. As long as the sky rolls over us and the grass grows upon the earth, it will be sought after, used and valued As there is no mercurial substance in it, but composed entirely of vegetables, it gives no ground for apprehension

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM

IF there be a pleasure on earth which superior beings cannot enjoy, and one which they might almost envy men the possession of, it is the power of relieving pain How consoling, then, is the consciousness of having been the instrument of rescuing thousands from misery to those who possess it What an amount of suffering has been relieved, and what a still greater amount of suffering can be prevented by the use of Sands's Sarsaparilla! The unfortunate victim of hereditary disease, with swollen glands contracted sinews and bones half carious has been restored to health and vigor The scrofulous patient covered with ulcers, loathsome to himself and to his attendants, has been made whole Hundreds of persons, who had groaned hopelessly for years under cutaneous and glandular disorders, chronic rheumatism, and many other complaints springing from a derangement of the secretive organs and the circulation, have been raised as it were from the rack of disease and now, with regenerated constitutions, gladly testify to the efficacy of this inestimable preparation

The following interesting case is not commend itself to the careful attention of all similarly afflicted

Sands's Celebrated Sarsaparilla.

I speak experimentally when I say that this medicine is far more effectual in the cure of chronic or accute rheumatism than any other preparation I have ever tested Having endured extreme suffering at times within the last five years from repeated attacks of inflammatory or acute Rheumatism, I have recently used Sands's Sarsaparilla with the happiest success, my health is now better than it has been for many months; at my appetite is good, and my strength is rapidly returning. I attribute this healthful change entirely to the use of this potent medicine Feeling a deep sympathy with those who are afflicted with this most tormenting and painful complaint, I cannot refrain from earnestly recommending to such the use of this valuable specific. Having the most entire confidence in the medical skill of Dr Sands, I was induced thereby to try the effects of this Sarsaparilla and I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of many others commendatory of its invaluable properties unknown to and unsolicited by the Messrs Sands CHARLES DYER Jr.

NANTUCKET, Mass 8th, mo 31 1844

A B & D SANDS Esteemed Friends Although an entire stranger to you, I do not feel at liberty any longer to defer the acknowledgment of a great indebtedness to you for your invaluable Sarsaparilla, which has been the means, under a kind Providence, of my inexpressible relief I am also urged to this acknowledgment by reflecting, that by my humble testimony hundreds of sufferers, miserable as I have been, may be induced to try this remedy, and experience a cure as speedy and happy as mine For ten years I have been suffering under a Scrofulous affection of the Bones in my head, and during a great part of this time, my pain and sufferings were so severe, that but for a reliance on the Great Disposer of events, I should have desired and much preferred death itself At different periods during my sickness twenty pieces of bone have been taken from my head in various ways, besides all my upper teeth, and the entire upper jaw, rendering the mastication of food quite impossible After expending about six hundred dollars for medical aid, I had recourse to your justly celebrated Sarsaparilla, and within the last three months the use of twelve bottles has, with the most beneficial operation, completely arrested the disease, the healing process is going forward, and I am rapidly approaching to a perfect cure Being extremely anxious that others laboring under similar complaints may have the advantage of my experience, I shall be most happy any time to communicate to them or to you such further and more minute particulars as may be desired Please accept assurance of my great obligation and regard.

Of the efficacy of this Balsam in the worst forms of Consumption.

From Dr Storer of Saco, Me.

DR BRADLEE Dear Sir The Hungarian Balsam is beyond all question a most perfect and admirable preparation for Diseases of the Lungs I have used it in my family, and in my professional practice, for more than two years, with the most uniform and entire success In cases of severe Pulmonary Disease, and I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted, as the most certain remedy for such diseases with which I am acquainted

Yours Respectfully,
FREDERICK T. STORER, M D
Saco, May 22, 1845

Valuable evidence from David Bugbee, Esq. Bangor

BANGOR, Sept. 18, 184

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir At your request I send you a report of my success as General Agent for the Hungarian Balsam. I have now had the Agency of that excellent medicine about two years and have sold in that period, nearly twelve gross, or 1728 bottles. Much of this has been used in the vicinity of Bangor, but many dozens have been sent several hundred miles to Houlton and the Provinces, to Machias Eastport, &c The success of this Balsam in the relief and cure of Pulmonary diseases is absolutely astonishing Hundreds, I am sure, have been saved from a premature grave by this medicine—invalids supposed to be past all hope, have been restored to comparative health, and the last moments of the dying have been made comfortable by its use In cases of children afflicted with severe and obstinate coughs, it has been employed with great success several instances of this having come under my personal knowledge. Indeed this is a grand medicine. Its reputation is established here, and the sales are constantly increasing

Yours truly,
DAVID BUGBEE

Another Life Saved.

BATH, Me Feb 24, 1845

DR BRADLEE Dear Sir I take much pleasure in giving you a statement of the beneficial effects of Buchan's Hungarian Balsam, on my daughter, who had been for a number of years afflicted with a bad cough, pain in the side, raising of blood and all those pains and troubles which attend that insidious disease, Consumption I employed a physician who attended her a long time at great expense, and then advised the consultation of a celebrated physician in a neighboring town at still greater expense and after a number of visits from the advising physician, and the continuance for some time of the family physician he declared he could do no more for her He had done all that he could and I could see no benefit from it I then employed a Botanic Physician for some time who seemed to do her some good, but did not reach the root of the disease I was then advised by a friend to try BUCHAN'S HUNGARIAN BALSAM I have used six bottles with a most astonishing effect It has restored her strength cured her entirely of her cough and pain in the side and she is now attending to her accustomed duties This may seem wonderful but it is no more strange than true, and I would advise all who have symptoms of consumption to take this medicine in season, and not wait till all hope is past, although this case I considered as fortunately In this case I paid between one and two hundred dollars for physicians and medicine without any satisfactory benefit while six dollars worth of the HUNGARIAN BALSAM has removed the disease renewed the strength and brought on a healthy action of the system Try it for yourselves and you will find the one half has not been told You can use this letter as you think best and he will do most good and wishing that your medicine may benefit many as much as my daughter,

I remain gratefully yours, JNO YOUNG

P S I would say further that about five years ago my daughter commenced raising blood which continued at times for three years and sometimes very bad, all about two years when she commenced taking this Balsam The first bottle stopped the raising of blood entirely and she has never been troubled with it since

From J L Ladd, Apothecary Augusta.

AUGUSTA Me May 27, 1845

DR BRADLEE Dear Sir Having sold the Hungarian Balsam of Life for two years past and having personally observed its beneficial effects in many cases of lung complaints and none of them very severe I do not hesitate to recommend it as an excellent preparation for those diseases for which it is recommended

Very respectfully, &c J E LADD

GREAT CURE AT AUGUSTA, ME.

AUGUSTA, May 27, 1845

DR BRADLEE Dear Sir I can truly say that the Hungarian Balsam has been of the most infinite service to me I have been cured of an affection of the lungs which was thought to be INCURABLE by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles One of my children was also restored to health after being pronounced beyond the reach of medical aid by the physicians, and it is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the throat and lungs I have recommended this Balsam to a great many persons and shall continue to do so, as I believe it to be the best thing in the world for diseases of the lungs

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

From Edward Mason Druggist, Portland, Me.

PORTLAND Me April 17, 1845.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir: The Hungarian Balsam gives good satisfaction in this city and vicinity, and I have no doubt from the reports I hear of its salutary effects upon invalids that it is an excellent preparation for diseases of the lungs EDWARD MASON,
Apothecary, 52 Middle street

HEAR THE PRESS.

From the Christian Observer, March 2, 1845

The public may place the utmost reliance upon the statements respecting the Hungarian Balsam, by Dr Bradlee the American Agent, who is an old and highly respectable citizen of Boston, a member of a christian church and a man who would not for any consideration, give his influence in favor of any sort of deception or imposture

From the Thomsonian

If any thing could reconcile us to a departure from Thomsonian principles, in the treatment of disease, it would be the extraordinary reputation of a medicine like the Hungarian Balsam, which we believe both from careful analysis and the statement of the inventor, to be a purely vegetable compound The effect of this medicine in cases of Consumption, is sometimes truly astonishing.

☞ Every family in the United States should be supplied with Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to counteract the consumptive tendencies of the climate, but to be used as a preventive medicine in all cases of Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side and Chest, Irritation and Soreness of the Lungs, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Emanciation and General Debility, Asthma, Influenza, Hooping Cough, and Croup

Pamphlets, containing a mass of English and American certificates, and other evidence, showing the unequalled merits of this Great English Remedy, may be obtained of the Agents, gratuitously.

The Annexation of Texas.

We gave yesterday a brief account of the action of the Texan Congress relative to the annexation of that country as a state of this Union. President Jones in his message on the assembling of Congress at its special session thus treats the subject of annexation and of the Treaty with Mexico.

"The executive has now the pleasure to transmit to the Honorable Congress, for such action as they may deem suitable, the propositions which have been made on the part of the United States to this government, for the annexation of Texas, and its incorporation as a State, into that great and kindred confederacy, together with the correspondence between the two governments, which has arisen out of the same.—This correspondence, entering as it does, very fully into the views and sentiments of the governments in question, renders it unnecessary for the executive to add (for the information or consideration of Congress) but little thereto in reference to the proposed measure.

The executive has much satisfaction in observing—what, no doubt, will forcibly arrest the attention of the Congress—that, although the terms embraced in the resolutions of the United States Congress may at first have appeared less favorable than was desirable for Texas, the very liberal and magnanimous views entertained by the President of the United States towards Texas, and the promises made through the representative of that country, in regard to the future advantages to be extended to her if she consent to the proposed union, render those terms much more acceptable than they would otherwise have been.

The state of public opinion, and the great anxiety of the people to act definitely upon the subject of annexation, by a convention of deputies, as prescribed in the resolutions of the U. States Congress, induced the executive to issue his proclamation on the 5th of May ultimo, recommending an election for sixty one deputies, to be held in the several counties throughout the republic, on the fourth of the present month, and to assemble in convention, at the city of Austin, on the 4th of July next. This recommendation has met the sanction of the citizens generally, and the deputies in the several counties, so far as heard from, having been elected upon the basis proposed, it is confidently expected the convention will assemble at the time and place fixed upon. To this convention the question of annexation, and the adoption of a State constitution, will properly belong, and they will determine the great question of the nationality of Texas, as to them shall seem most conducive to the interest, happiness and prosperity of the people whom they will represent. It is important that the consent of the existing government should be given to their exercising the powers which have been delegated to them in order to comply with a requirement of that effect in the resolutions on the subject of annexation, passed by the American Congress.—For this purpose, the present extraordinary session of the Congress of the republic of Texas has been convoked, and to its wisdom, as a coordinate department, the executive now submits the determination of the matter.

The service performed by the convention will be arduous, and will probably engage it for a considerable period of time, and the executive would respectfully recommend to Congress the propriety of making a suitable appropriation for the payment of its members as well as the officers it may find occasion to employ.

The executive has the pleasure, in addition to presenting Congress the propositions concerning annexation, to inform them that certain conditions preliminary to a treaty of peace, upon the basis of the recognition of independence of Texas by Mexico, were signed on the part of the latter, at the city of Mexico, on the 19th of May last and were transmitted to this government on the 2d instant, by the Baron Alleye de Cyprey, minister plenipotentiary of his Majesty the King of the French at that court, by the hands of Captain Elliott, her Britannic Majesty's charge d'affaires near the government. In consequence of the signing of these preliminaries the Executive believed it to be his duty, in the recess of Congress, to make the fact known to the people of Texas, and to declare and proclaim a cessation of hostilities between Texas and Mexico, until the same could be communicated to, and acted upon by, Congress and the convention about to assemble. A proclamation for this purpose was consequently issued on the 4th instant, a copy of which is here transmitted. The preliminaries being in the nature of a treaty, will, with all the correspondence in relation thereto, be forthwith communicated to the honorable Senate, for its constitutional advice, and such action as, in its wisdom, the same shall seem to require.

The alternative of annexation or independence, will thus be placed before the people of Texas, and their free, sovereign, and unbiased voice will determine the all important issue, and so far as it shall depend upon the executive to act, he will give immediate and full effect to the expression of their will."

The treaty with Mexico was emphatically rejected, and joint resolutions passed unanimously in favor of annexation to the United States.

In the second paragraph we have quoted from the message of President Jones, there is a remark that has arrested attention as it well deserves to do. The "views" and "promises" of the President of the United States are spoken of as rendering the "terms much more acceptable" than they were as presented in the resolutions of the United States Congress. What effective views and what promises has President Polk to make beyond the resolutions under which he acted? It is quite certain that promising more than the resolutions did, he has exceeded his authority, or that the President of Texas has been deceived or designed to give an extra coloring to the side of annexation. We hope this matter may be thoroughly sifted and the whole matter brought to light that those who appear so jubilant on account of Annexation may understand the whole merits of the case.

The Boston Journal remarks in reference to the passage of the annexation resolutions, that "the iniquitous project conceived by Messrs Tyler, Upshur, Gilmer, and other citizens of the South, who were jealous of the prosperity and respectability of the free States, and wished to extend the power of the South, is consummated—and the consequences, the bearing which this measure may have upon the peace and happiness of our country, and of the world, are yet hidden from our view." Mexico has been swindled out of immense and valuable territory.—Such is the opinion of the Mexicans, and we fear of all the nations of Europe—and such we fear will be the verdict of posterity. If Mexico does not wage a desperate war with this country to regain possession of Texas, it will be because we are strong and powerful, and Mexico is powerless and weak. The next movement on the part of Mexico, will be eagerly looked for."—The following paragraph from the N Y Express of Saturday, is full of meaning.

OUR RELATIONS WITH MEXICO. Mr Walker was closeted most of the day with that profound diplomatist, Mr Shannon, late Minister to Mexico. The government are not pleased with the present state of things. They feel at the State Department that there is danger of war with Mexico, particularly when that government hears that the treaty which Texas has been pretending to form with them has been a mere ruse to gain time the more effectually to come into our Union under the joint resolutions. The present government of Mexico, including the Congress, are known to be favorable to peace but a large part of the people are for war with Texas, or the United States, in case of annexation. How will the government be able to resist the popular will when they find that they have been betrayed. At any rate what is here said, is said advisedly, that war is not an improbable event growing out of our relations with Mexico, in the opinion of the administration.

☞ The Democrat is very anxious we should acknowledge that Mr Van Buren is in favor of the annexation of Texas. Well, we thought from the impression made upon our mind by reading his letter 'against' annexation that he was opposed to it, but a further examination of his letter satisfies us that although he found many weighty reasons growing out of our relations with Mexico and the posture of affairs between Texas and Mexico, against annexation, yet if his party with that issue before them should succeed in the election he should go in for annexation. His party did succeed and we therefore conclude that however strong might have been the real objections to annexation that he was willing to swallow the whole without winking if his party said "go it." Be it known then Mr Editor of the 'Democrat' that we recede most emphatically from the position assumed by us that Mr Van Buren is or was opposed to annexation and we now think that he is in favor of it and regrets most heartily having written his letter against it.

☞ We have received from Portland the first number of a new weekly paper entitled American Weekly Reviewer 'Old School Oracle of Health, and General Advertiser, in the Departments of Literature, Science, the Arts, Medicine, Philosophy, Law, Theology, Evangelical Religion and Civil Government.' It is edited by —— a sharp thrusting, witty 'old school' Parson, whose dry jokes keep him out of the pulpit, but whose nervous energy must be let off in the shape of editorials. The old gentleman makes quite an interesting paper—witty and odd, and might be just as pungent and witty without being half as eccentric, however eccentricity is the thing for these times and the oracle will succeed. Subscriptions to be addressed to Mr W. Hyde, Portland.

☞ The New Orleans Picayune is strongly of opinion that Mexico will not hazard a war with the United States, and mainly for the reason that the President of Mexico has as much as he can cope with to keep down insurrection at his own palace doors. Indeed a short time since he and his ministers were seized by a faction aided by a portion of the troops and were made prisoners, but at length rescued by the main army. The Picayune confesses however that the different factions would like to force the President into a war in hope of increasing their respective chances of success. A new election of President will take place on the first of August and this may result in burying rival claims and uniting the country in a war struggle.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Express says that the administration are far from being easy at the position of our affairs with Mexico. Should Texas decide at once to be annexed under the conditions and upon the terms of the joint resolution, there is little or no doubt that the hypocrisy of her conduct in concluding a treaty with Mexico, which she did not intend to keep, will produce additional irritation, after it is known that she has thus played the traitor, in addition to her former treason, and that the friends of peace in Mexico will yield to the clamors of the war party, when it is discovered that there is no faith, no truth, nor honor to be found in the "great valley of rascals."

Sad Calamity.

At Washington, on the Fourth, during the display of fire-works, several rockets became disarranged. A black woman was killed.

Mr Knowles, of Georgetown, who had been married but a short time, was sitting with his wife on the wall, far, as they supposed, from danger—the distance between them and the pyrotechnics being about a fourth of a mile—but one of the rockets, after skimming along the heads of the crowd below, struck him on the left breast, directly over the heart. His wife, it is related, discovered the calamity as she saw him falling from her side and in a moment drew out the stick. He died instantly, without a struggle.

The most piteous and harrowing lamentations filled the air, from one thus, in the twinkling of an eye, reduced to widowhood, and she was led through the gravelled walks, with her white garments stained with the blood yet warm, her cries, "he is dead! oh! my husband, he is dead," caused a general outburst of sorrow from the thousands, who, with her, were leaving the tragic scene. It was indeed a sad spectacle—one from which memory turns away with a shudder, even on the day after the fourth of July.

☞ Lost overboard, 29th ult. from sch Agawam, on the passage from Belfast to Newburyport, Mr Francis N Norris, of Cranberry Isle, Maine. He was knocked over by the foreboom, and rose under the quarter of the vessel, when a line was thrown to him, but he made no effort to reach it, and it was supposed he was either killed or stunned by the blow.

☞ The complete and final overthrow of Rivera, the contending President of Oriental Republic, seems to be unquestionable. Those of his followers who entered the Brazilian territory after the battle of India Muerta were disarmed and sent to the city of Rio Grande.

☞ Bark Olive from Bahia, arrived at Boston, reports that U S brig Bainbridge, from Rio Janeiro, had made seizure of brig Albert, of Boston, Capt Woodbury on a charge of participating in the slave trade.

☞ On Monday night, in a furious squall of wind, the barn of Col Goddard in Orono, was blown down and several river boats, a sleigh, a quantity of hay and other property scattered broken and destroyed. A corner of the shed attached to the house was shattered, and the premises suffered some other damage.

☞ We are under obligations to Gilman's Express for Boston and New York papers by the Penobscot to-day.

"When will Wonders Cease."

Money found on a Woman by Searching a Man

The Bangor Mercury is very flippant in its ridicule of other press for alledged blunders, and that too when most of those errors are obviously made by the types. It is natural to expect great accuracy from one who thus sets himself up as a critical catechiser of others, yet the Mercury of the 2d inst in its account of the arrest of the three persons in the Oldtown cars has the following most singular sentence:

"About $100 of the money was found on the person of the young woman, by searching Simon, City Marshal."

The finding of "$100 on a young woman by searching a City Marshal" is an event, we apprehend that has never before occurred in any city, ancient or modern—and the person whoever he may be, who has discovered this extraordinary art, is justly entitled to the honor and emoluments of a patent right. But before we can give full credence to the singular announcement of the Mercury, we would like for the editor to explain the indispensible contiguity and the nature of the search—to our obtuse intellect does not exactly comprehend the position of the parties and the modus operandi. And it would not be very strange if the "City Marshal" should demand of the Mercury Ed for the why and the wherefore that he is placed in such a suspicious position.

Perhaps upon further inquiry and reflection upon the whole matter and its attendants the editor of the Mercury may come to the conclusion, that with all its errors, the press has never made a greater blunder than that of saying that "$100 was found on a woman by searching a man!" And that those who live in glass houses should not throw stones. But, who was the searcher?

"About $100 of the money was found on the person of the young woman, by searching Simon, City Marshal."

Come forward, Mr Marshal and explain this mysterious business, or stop the clatter of your friend Mercury, before the deuce is to pay with you. Money found on a woman by searching a man! Well, this is a great country, surely.

Pleasure—Sabbath Breaking.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

Maine is distinguished for delightful water prospects. In visiting two thirds of the States of this Union, my eye has seldom been charmed with lovlier views, than are presented by the ponds the rivers, and the innumerable bays, in this State.

One of these beautiful sheets of water is in Glenburn, eight miles from Bangor. Some of the houses near the shore, are enviable summer residences. No wonder our citizens should take pleasure-rides to this pond, and boat rides upon its surface.

But why should they disturb the quiet of the holy Sabbath, for this purpose? Are not six days in each week, sufficient to seek pleasure of this kind? Is one day too much to rest, and enjoy the delights of the sanctuary?

Those who thus steal a little short-lived pleasure, must be aware that they diminish, or destroy the happiness of many others. To say nothing of the poor horses, (involuntary sufferers) there are the families that entertain these visiters, deprived of their Sabbath, week after week. More than this, all moral persons are deeply grieved at such violation of the laws, both of God and man. It is immoral and scandalous.

How can a man, who has a lovely family, tear himself away from his wife, and children, and the house of God, and ride off, and spend the Sabbath, like a shameless rowdy.

Notice how different the unhappy temper of such an one, during the following week, from the hallowed, cheerful spirit of him, who went with his household to the sanctuary!

AN OBSERVER

The Irish Character.

In one of the eloquent passages quoted in The Tribune of Wednesday, under the head 'Spirit of the Irish Press,' we find these words.

"Domestic love, almost morbid from external suffering, prevents him (the Irishman) from becoming a fanatic and a misanthrope, and reconciles him to life."

This recalled to our mind the many touching instances known to us of such traits among the Irish we have seen here. We have seen instances of morbidness like this. A girl sent "home," after she was well established herself, for a young brother of whom she was particularly fond. He came, and shortly after died.—She was so overcome by this loss, that she took poison and died. The great poet of serious England says, and we believe it to be his serious thought though laughingly said, "Men have died and worms have eaten them, but not for love." Whether or no death may follow from the loss of a lover or a child, we believe that among no people but the Irish would it upon loss of a young brother.

Another poor young woman, in the flower of her youth, denied herself, not only every pleasure, but almost the necessaries of life, to save the sum she thought ought to be hers before sending to Ireland for a widowed mother. Just as she was on the point of doing so, she heard that her mother had died fifteen months before. The keenness and persistence of her grief defy description. With a delicacy of feeling which shewed the native poetry of the Irish mind she dwelt, most of all upon the thought that while she was working and pinching and dreaming of happiness with her mother, it was indeed, but a dream, and that cherished parent lay still and cold in the ground. She felt fully the cruel cheat of fate. "Och, and she was dead all those times I was thinking on her!" was the deepest note of her lament.

They are able, however, to make the sacrifice even of these intense family affections in a worthy cause. We knew a woman who postponed sending for her only child whom she had left in Ireland, for years, while she maintained a sick friend who had no one else to help her.

The poetry of which I have spoken shows itself even here, where they are separated from old romantic associations, and begin the new life in the new world by doing all its drudgery. We know flights of poetry repeated to us by those present at their wakes—passages of natural eloquence from the lamentations for the dead, more beautiful than those recorded in the annals of Brittany or Roumelia.

It is the same genius so exquisitely mournful, tender, and glowing too, with the first enthusiasm, that makes their national music in these respects, the finest in the world. It is the music of the harp, its tones are deep and thrilling. It is the harp so beautifully described in "The harp of Tara's halls," a song whose simple pathos is unsurpassed. A [illegible] was never more adequately embodied.

It is the genius which will enable Emmett's appeal to draw tears from the remotest generations, however much they may be strangers to the circumstances which called it forth. It is the genius which beamed in chivalrous loveliness through each act of Lord Edward Fitzgerald,—the genius which, fostered by English culture, favored by suitable occasions, has shed such glory on the land which has done all it could to quench it on the parent hearth.

When we consider all the fire which glows so untameably in Irish veins, the character of her people, considering the circumstances—almost miraculous in its goodness—we cannot forbear notwithstanding all the temporary ills they aid in here, to give them all a welcome to our shore. Those ills we need not enumerate: they are known to all, and we rank among them what others would not, that by their ready service to do all the hard work they make it easier for the rest of the population to grow effeminate and help the country to grow too fast.—But that is her destiny, to grow too fast; it is useless talking against it. Their extreme ignorance, their blind devotion to a priesthood, their pliancy in the hands of demagogues threaten continuance of these ills; yet, on the other hand we must regard them as a most valuable element in the new race. They are looked upon with contempt for their want of aptitude at new things, their ready and ingenious lying, their eye service. These are the faults of an oppressed race which must require the aid of better circumstances through two or three generations to eradicate. Their virtues are their own —they are many noted.

Can an impartial observer fail to admire their truth to domestic ties, their power of generous bounty and more generous gratitude, their indefatigable good humor, (for ages of wrong which have driven them to so many acts of desperation, could not sour their blood at its source,) the ready wit, the elasticity of nature. They are at bottom one of the best nations of the world. Would they were welcomed here not to work merely, but to intelligent sympathy and efforts both patient and ardent for the education of their children. No sympathy could be better deserved, nor efforts wiser timed.—Future Burkes and Currans would know how to give thanks for them, and Fitzgeralds rise up on the soil which boasts the magnolia with its kingly stature and majestical white blossoms to the same lofty and pure beauty! Will you not believe it, merely because that bedrid youth you see laid in the mud hole tells you lies and drinks [illegible] in those endless diggings? You are short sighted, my friend; you do not look to the future; you will not turn your head to see what may have been the influences of the past; you have not examined your own breast to see whether the monster there had not commanded you to do your part to continue these influences, and yet the Irishman appeals to you, eye to eye. He is very personal himself; he expects a personal interest from you. Nothing has been able to destroy this hope, which is the fruit of [illegible]nature. We were much touched by O'Connell's direct address to the Queen as 'Lady,' but she did not listen, and we fear few ladies and gentlemen will till the prayers of destiny compels them.

How Talent works its Way.

A New York correspondent of Zion's Herald gives the following notice of Professor Turner, of the Union Theological Seminary.

"William W Turner is yet a young man. A printer, while daily engaged in the laborious duties of a compositor in the establishment of West & Trow in this city, he found time to make himself master of a number of languages, and subsequently, being appointed librarian of the University, performed a large portion of the labor of preparing Nordheimer's Hebrew Grammar, which without his assistance would never have been the valuable work it now is, as its author was but superficially acquainted with the English language. Prof Turner now occupies the situation of teacher of Hebrew in the Union Theological Seminary, as colleague of Dr Robinson. His knowledge of modern and oriental languages is extensive and critical, and as a man and a Christian he is greatly beloved and esteemed by all who enjoy his acquaintance, a model for many of higher pretensions with less of real worth to recommend them to public attention."

A Heroine.

A Paris correspondent of the London Illustrated News, records a truly commendable incident in the life of an actress. He says he was present a few days before, at a scene which took place on the Quai Valmy; a young girl, it appears, had been washing some linen on the banks of the canal, and, in endeavoring to regain a handkerchief, fell into the water and disappeared. The crowd who witnessed the accident ran shrieking to and fro, but none made the attempt to save the drowning girl. Suddenly appeared a young lady fashionably dressed; the moment she was made acquainted with the circumstance she divested herself of her bonnet and shawl, and dashed into the water, more than thrice this brave girl labored to save the drowning victim, at length, three young men assisted in drawing both females safely to land. The name of the heroic girl is Adele Chevalier, an actress.—She was placed in a fiacre, and conducted to her lodgings, amidst the cheering of the populace.

Songs for the Million.

BY ONE OF THEM

No 1 LABOR

Up, brothers, to your toil to day
Let fools the burden shirk
Though idle men may snatch the pay,
Thank God, they leave the work

Let purse proud, bloated sluggards preach
Of labor as a curse
Their rotten health and morals teach
That idleness is worse

Who labors, lives, though but a slave
And reaping not the fruit
His lazy lord in manhood's grave,
Is but a wallowing brute

Then ply the hoe and ply the plough,
And ditch the drowsy bog,
And if it must be when a low
Your lords to play the hog

Then ply the spindle, ply the loom
Though tyrants take the cloth,
Your happy limbs they cannot doom
To feel the pains of sloth

While life is left they can't destroy
Your Blissfull muse e pla ,
That glorious spark creative joy
They cannot take away
